OPERA 'MAROUF' IS EXCELLENTLY SONG

Composer's Skill Admired, but Work Is Not of Type Popular Here.

DE LUCA WINS LAURELS

Mme. Alda Shows Her Art Is Steadily Growing While Her Shadow Decreases.

Henri Rabaud's opera, "Marouf," was presented last evening for the first time this season. Mr. Rabaud is the new conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. His work was conducted last evening by Pierre Monteux, who held the baton over the Bostonians (the French composer could reach this country. But the average opera-goer does not care greatly about the type of composer or conductor who directs symphonic concerts.

The performance of "Marouf" last evening was attended with considerable interest by an audience of moderate size. To say that any enthusiasm was displayed would be an extravagant statement, but there were evidences of some admiration for Mr. Rabaud's refinement of treatment of Oriental scenes, a treatment rich in texture, varied in color, never garish. But the opera is distinctly not of the type most popular with local operagoers. It has little elementary rhythm, little approach to the familiar sort of jingle and little opportunity for spectacular singing.

The principals engaged in last evening's performance were those heard last season. Mr. de Luca repeated his excellent impersonation of the cobbler of Calvo. The part brings out some of the best qualities of his voice and his art as a singer, while his acting in the comedy is neatly retained within the limits of discretion. Mme. Alda was again the princess who became the cobbler's bride.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ross Green of Germantown have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Calvert Green, to James Booth Lockwood November 16 in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clerch of Bryn Mawr have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Marie Clerch, to Winfield S. H. Space of Camden.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles George Tower have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helen Tower, to Major William Abbott Robertson of Nashville. Miss Tower is at present in Washington as an assistant to Miss Mabel Boardman at the headquarters of the American Red Cross.

ENGAGEMENTS ANNOUNCED.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Phelps Bliss, 4 East Eighty-seventh street and Wendeover, N. Y., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Katharine Baldwin Bliss, to Capt. Hermann C. Schwab of this city.

Miss Katharine Baldwin Bliss, who last winter, though on account of the war she was not formally introduced to society, was secretary of the Junior League of this city. She was graduated from Harvard in 1913 and is a member of the United States Army. She is stationed at Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass.

JANE COWL ILL; DELAYS PLAY.

Controversy Over Role in "The Crowded Hour" May Be Cause.

A large crowd gathered in front of the Selwyn Theatre last night to witness the first performance of Charming Pollock's "The Crowded Hour," which has been a great success in Chicago. A sign in front of the theatre announced that "owing to the illness of Miss Jane Cowl" the opening would be postponed until Monday. It was said that Miss Cowl's illness had come suddenly.

In theatrical circles there has been distributed a circular announcing that the Selwyn company had broken its contract in allowing Miss Cowl to play the leading part in this play, as it had been promised to Willette Kersey, who has the role in Chicago. Miss Kersey's side of the story has received wide publicity in New York in the last two days and fears were expressed last night that Miss Cowl's nerves might have been upset by such an incident before a first night. It was said that Miss Cowl's illness would be postponed until Monday. It was said that Miss Cowl's illness had come suddenly.
